PRIVACY NOTICE
APUC/UCSS Staff Members
March 2024

This privacy notice provides you with information about how we handle your personal information as an employee. We may update this Privacy Notice from time to time and will publish an up to date copy on the APUC website.

Who Are We?
APUC (Advanced Procurement for Universities and Colleges) Limited is the procurement centre of expertise for Scotland’s Universities and Colleges. We are wholly owned by our member HE and FE institutions and therefore acts as a subsidiary for them. Our contact details are: APUC Ltd, Unit 27, Stirling Business Centre, Wellgreen, Stirling, FK8 2DZ, Tel: +44 (0) 131 442 8930.

If you have any questions or concerns about how we collect, store or use your information, please contact our Data Protection Officer - dataprotection@apuc-scot.ac.uk

What Types of Personal Information Do We Collect?
- Contact details
- Date of Birth
- Bank Account
- National Insurance Number
- Absence Records
- Performance Records
- Equality monitoring
- Copies of ID
- Criminal Convictions
- Emergency contact details
- Photos of you

Full details of the personal information we may collect, in addition to the purposes and lawful basis for processing are shown in the table in appendix 1.

Where does your Personal Information Come From?
We may collect your Personal Information in a number of ways, for example:
- When you contact us through HR or our governance team either via telephone or email;
- When we collect data through the implementation of any governance / HR Employee Relations Policies e.g. Disciplinary, Grievance
- In the course of managing your employment or relationship with APUC, for example PRD, payroll
- When you use any HR services
- When we receive your information from third parties, for example references; security screening; and recruitment agencies.

Who we may share your Personal Information with?
We may share your personal information with the following parties:
- HMRC
• With employees, agents and/or professional advisors
• APUC member institutions, other UK Purchasing Consortia, Centres of Expertise, Scottish Government
• With other third party contractors who provide services to us, for example payroll, pension, IT system providers
• Current and potential framework suppliers (in order to conduct business)
• The public generally: for business promotion, we may share details of your name, work location, job role and photograph.

What is the Lawful Basis for Processing your Personal Information?
We process your personal information under the following lawful basis:

• Contract – the processing is necessary for a contract with you or to take steps before entering a contract.
• Legal Obligations – the processing is necessary to comply with the law.
• Legitimate Interests – the processing is necessary for our legitimate interests or that of a third party.

Where is your personal data stored?
We don’t routinely transfer staff personal data outside the UK or the EU, however in some cases this may be necessary due to the arrangements of third parties with whom we share information. Where this is the case we will ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place.

How long will we keep your Personal Data?
We keep your personal information only for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes for which we process your personal information, including to satisfy any legal, accounting or reporting requirements and as detailed below:

• We will retain current bank account details during your engagement and delete these 6 months after the final payment to you following the termination of your engagement.
• We will retain current emergency contact details during your engagement and delete these when your engagement terminates.
• We will retain payroll and wage records, salary and benefits details, including pension and bonus details during your engagement and until 7 years after termination;
• We will retain photographs of you during your engagement and delete these when your engagement terminates;
• We will retain tax records for 7 years from the end of the tax year to which they relate.

What Are Your Rights Regarding Your Personal Data?
You have the following rights under data protection legislation in relation to the personal information that we hold about you.

• The right to request a copy of your personal data which APUC holds about you
• The right to request that APUC corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate
• The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing
• The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.
In some circumstances you may have the following rights:

- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for APUC to retain such data
- The right to withdraw your consent (where consent is the lawful basis)
- The right to request that APUC provide you with your personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller
- The right to object to the processing of personal data

We aim to resolve all complaints internally via our Data Protection Officer, but you do have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner at any time. Their contact details can be found here: Make a complaint | ICO
